

I believe that the service provided to our community by K-Love radio is very needed. It is family christian music with uplifting scripture messages and clean language talk. I know hundreds of people including teenagers that listen to K-Love. I believe we need that kind of uplifting and positive resource for entertainment. We need something to counteract all the negative of drugs, sex and violence that we are bombarded with everyday.